Every cherished possession has a story

For nearly 150 years, Fireman's Fund® has specialized in protecting family heirlooms and valuable collections.

We understand that your collection is more than just something you hang on the wall – it's your passion. That's why we start with broad coverage, add access to special services, and finish the composition with stellar claims service to help when it matters most. It's protection that enables you to enjoy your collections, not worry about them.

With Prestige Collections®, you have a choice – itemize your collection or opt for blanket coverage for lower value items, or both. When coverage is itemized, values and descriptions are established from the start. If something happens to the things you cherish, there's no guesswork about inventory or value. Claims settlement is faster, easier, and more accurate. And to help ensure adequate coverage for items that appreciate, we offer payment of up to 150% of this amount.

We know how to protect the things you love.

When you add to an itemized collection you already insure with us, you receive automatic protection up to 100% of the class limit to which it belongs. And our coverage is global, so you can add to your collection anywhere in the world and know that your new treasure will be covered immediately.

If you loan artwork or other valuables to third parties, such as a museum or office, our coverage goes along for the ride.

And there are no deductibles. None.

Prestige Collections also provides access to:

- Personal consultations with experienced consultants, in your home, to assess your valuables and prevent losses and damage.
- Referrals to appraisers, conservators, restorers, museum-quality framers, specialized shippers, and much more.
- Conservation assistance to identify valuables that may need restoration to protect their value.

We Do the Right Thing When It Matters Most

We know that no matter how careful you are, accidents happen. Great coverage and loss prevention advice are critical to protecting your collection. But we also know what matters most is fast and fair claims settlement. Our claims professionals understand how to achieve the best results when damage occurs to unique and irreplaceable objects.

And if fine art is stolen, we'll register the theft with the Art Loss Register and work with them for the return of your property.
